MINISTRY OF COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT & COOPERATION

(Department of Cooperation)

New Delhi, the 26th July 1961

No. F.6-9/61-U.T.—In its Resolution on Cooperative Policy, the National Development Council considered it essential that by making taccavi loans and other facilities available through cooperatives, conditions should be created in which every peasant and rural worker will find it to his advantage to join the village cooperative. Consequent on this decision of the National Development Council the Government of India suggested to all States in May, 1959, that as a rule, except in the case of distress taccavi, all assistance to farmers should be channelled through cooperative organisations.

2 While a few State Governments have taken steps to channel taccavi loans through cooperatives in specific areas and/or for specific purposes the progress, by and large, is not appreciable. There are, it is felt, a number of organisational, procedural and administrative difficulties in the implementation of this policy which require careful consideration. The Government of India have therefore decided to set up a Committee to examine the whole question and suggest suitable procedures for implementing this policy.

- 11 Shri T Satyanarayana Rao, Joint Chief Officer, Agricultural Credit Department, Reserve Bank of India

Member Secretary

- 12 Shri B S Dhavle, Deputy Secretary, Ministry of Community Development and Cooperation.

4. The terms of reference of the Committee are.—

- (a) To examine the existing arrangements in the different States for the supply of taccavi loans to farmers;

- (b) To suggest measures—organisational, procedural and administrative as will ensure effective implementation of the policy of routing taccavi loans through co-operatives.

- (c) To examine the adequacy of the institutional structure of cooperatives and to suggest changes, if any, for facilitating the supply of taccavi loans through co-operatives, and

- (d) To examine whether any guarantee or subsidy to co-operative institutions for undertaking the issue and recovery of taccavi loans is necessary

5 The headquarters of the Committee shall be at New Delhi. The Committee may undertake tours as and when necessary and may examine representatives of Government and cooperative institutions and others.
